Description:

This unique vending business does more than $330,000.00 in revenue without full time engagement from the seller. This would be a great business that has a very flexible work schedule where one does not necessarily need to work every day. We are seeking a handy type buyer who has an understanding on maintenance, electrical and mechanical experience needed to set up and maintain these types of vending machines. This business has more than 147 locations, with new additions added monthly. These vending machines bring in both credit card and cash sales. This is a home based business that is operated from a small shop for parking service truck (with crane) and storing extra machines and equipment. All the asset of the equipment value is easily worth more than $420,000.00. The business financials will support a cash flow (SDE) that is easily around $80,000.00. Did I mention that these machines bring in cash? The described business is ready to grow with big potential to be servicing around 400 machines or more with new additions added monthly. Contact us for more information, NDA required. Buy this business for $420,000.00 and be making cash from day one.
