Sunbelt Listing ID:

Description: Now available is a Commercial and Residential irrigation company that has been servicing the areas of the Gulf Coast areas for over 25 years. This one owner success story is providing few of the following turn key assets: a full professional staff, excellent financial books, good quality service vehicles, high end ample commercial field equipment (list available), affordable commercial real estate (purchased separately), considerable inventory, and much more. A wide range of services are provided along with a repeat business reputation that is second to none. They also provide the highest quality name brand products to their customers. The financial numbers posted are for 2019 pre Covid. This was standard business until short term abnormal business conditions caused sales to slip slightly. 2022 is projected to be the best year in the company's history based on existing pending firm commitments currently in place. This type business seldom comes available.. especially one of this caliber. A clean and solid reputable firm that is highly profitable is NOW available.
