Description:

Nearly a decade long family owned specialty bakery producing a very special bakery treat with a considerable number of varieties. This one owner/operator business with a Facebook 4.9 review score is located in a nice strip center in great location on a very busy main road. Even during Covid sales never dropped. This family/veteran owned business also provides great financial books, an affordable lease and a professional website. This well equipped bakery is suitable for expanding its product line and even has potential for franchising. Prices have never been raised, giving a new owner the option of built in revenue adjustment.

No special license is required, enabling an entry level new business owner to have their first business without delay. Also, great business for expansion via acquisition in order to leave the cold weather and enjoy the Florida sun. This turn key opportunity is providing everything necessary to take over right away.
