Description: This would be a great business for someone who is experienced in alterations and sewing. The business currently runs itself and an owner operator could increase the profits by working as seamstress. This long established business has a long list of return clientele doing repeat business. The current owner has full time job and does not have enough time to spend on the business. Expansion of business would be as simple as doing more internet based marketing and passing business cards out to local dry cleaners and retail clothing stores. This would be a great job for someone looking to work during school hours. This business can be yours for $50,000.00. please contact us for more information.
